PROTECTIVE ORDER

This matter having come before the Court upon the Stipulation of the Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit (“PFRS”), the General Retirement System of the City of Detroit (“GRS,” and together with PFRS, the “Retirement Systems”), and International Union, UAW (the “UAW”) that certain data being produced by the Retirements Systems to the UAW (the “Data”) may contain personally identifiable information relating to individual retirees or active employees of the City of Detroit, including but not limited to, social security numbers, dates of birth, pension identification numbers, home addresses, home telephone numbers, and financial account numbers; the Retirement Systems desiring to protect personally identifiable information from disclosure; and the Court finding good cause for granting the relief herein:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The UAW shall keep confidential all personally identifiable information of third parties contained in the Data that it receives from the Retirement Systems. Personally identifiable information shall include names, physical and electronic addresses, telephone numbers, social security numbers, dates of birth, pension identification numbers, financial account numbers, and any other information whose disclosure would create an undue risk of identity theft or other unlawful injury.

2. The UAW may disclose or refer to the Data in the aggregate on the condition that the disclosed Data not identify a specific retiree or a specific retiree's personally identifiable information.

3. The UAW shall provide its attorneys, financial advisors, actuaries, expert witnesses, or any other agent(s) with a copy of this Stipulated Order (the "Order") and obtain each such person or entity's agreement to be bound by the Order in advance of such person or entity receiving any of the Data.

4. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to waive any objections to the production of documents that the Retirement Systems may be entitled to assert under state and federal law, including M.C.L. § 38.1140h.

5. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to waive any privileges that the Retirement Systems may be entitled to assert, including the attorney-client, work product, and/or accountant-client privileges.

6. The terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.
